

Contents

Figures and Tables     vii

Preface     xiii

Acknowledgments     xxi

Introduction: Preventing Bullying and Preventing Harm     1

Chapters

1 The Youth Voice Project Study: Rationale and Methodology     5

Who took part in the Youth Voice Project?     6

Survey questions     6

2 Characteristics and Impact of Peer Mistreatment     13

Were there differences in grade level?     13

Were there differences in gender?     13

What was the focus of the mistreatment?     14

Who did and did not experience trauma?     16

3 School Connection     19

Gender and grade level effects     20

Relationship between school connection and trauma levels     21

Can school connection variables protect against and mitigate negative effects of peer mistreatment?     23

Strategies to build students' sense of connection to school     25

4 Self-Actions     29

Types of self-actions     30

What are the most helpful self-actions?     30

Using humor     35

Accessing support     37

Reframing the situation	39
Avoidance and did nothing	39
Revenge	41
I-messages	42
Direct confrontation	42
Prevalence of self-actions	42
Connection between self-actions and trauma levels	47
Encouraging helpful self-actions	48
5 Peer Actions	57
Types of peer actions	58
What are the most helpful peer actions?	58
Support	63
Distraction	64
Help accessing adult support	65
Direct confrontation	66
Avoidance	67
Blame or ridicule	67
Prevalence of peer actions	68
Connection between peer actions and trauma levels	72
Encouraging helpful peer actions	72
6 Adult Actions	81
Types of adult actions	82
What are the most helpful adult actions?	83
Support	86
Follow-up	88
Class or school presentations	89
Discipline	89
Mediation	89
Avoidance	90
Blame	90
Prevalence of adult actions	90
Connection between adult actions and trauma levels	96
Encouraging helpful adult actions	96
7 Social Equity	107
Characteristics of mistreated students	108

How do adults and peers respond to student subgroups?	110
Sexual orientation	112
Gender	114
Physical disability	114
Special education services	116
Race	116
Free or reduced lunch	118
Encouraging social equity	119
8 A Tale of Two Schools	131
Peer partners	136
Advisor-advisee program	136
After-school programs	137
Code of ethics	137
9 Summary and Recommendations	139
What doesn't work	139
What does work	140
Conclusions	144
Appendix: Youth Voice Project Survey	147
References	161
About the Authors	169