

Contents

Figures and Tables xi

Preface xiii

Acknowledgments xv

Introduction I

Why Teach Social Skills? 1

Historical Background 2

Population Characteristics 2

 Social Skills 2

 Emotional and Behavioral Characteristics 3

 Language and Communication Characteristics 3

 Cognitive Characteristics 4

 Academic and Learning Characteristics 4

 Sensory Characteristics 5

 Physical and Motor Skills 5

New Skills and Skill Groupings 5

 Relationship Skills 7

 Social Comprehension 7

 Self-Regulation 8

 Problem Solving 8

 Understanding Emotions 9

 School-Related Skills 9

 Skill Combinations and Context 9

Skillstreaming Program Arrangements 10

 Instructional Settings and Team 11

 Program Implementation 11

Core Skillstreaming Learning Procedures 14

 Modeling 14

Role-playing	14
Feedback	14
Generalization	14
Steps in the Skillstreaming Session	15
Step 1: Define the Skill	15
Step 2: Model the Skill	17
Step 3: Establish Learner Skill Need	18
Step 4: Select the First Role-Player	18
Step 5: Set Up the Role-Play	18
Step 6: Conduct the Role-Play	19
Step 7: Provide Feedback	20
Step 8: Select the Next Role-Player	21
Step 9: Assign Skill Homework	21
Assessment	25

Skill Outlines and Homework Reports 29

Homework Reports follow each skill.

Group I: Relationship Skills 31

Beginning Relationship Skills

1. Listening Without Interrupting	33
2. Greeting Others	36
3. Responding to a Greeting	39
4. Asking a Question About the Topic	42
5. Staying on Topic	45
6. Responding to Questions	48
7. Taking Turns	51
8. Complimenting Others	54
9. Helping Others	57
10. Encouraging Others	60
11. Cooperating with Others	63
12. Sharing	66
13. Asking a Favor	69

Advanced Relationship Skills

14. Starting a Conversation	72
15. Continuing a Conversation	75

16. When to Introduce a New Topic	78
17. Accepting a Topic Change	81
18. Ending a Conversation	84
19. Responding to Offers to Join In	87
20. Asking to Join In	90
21. Communicating Preferences	93
22. Accepting Another's Opinion	96
Group II: Social Comprehension	99
23. Reading Others	101
24. Reading the Environment	104
25. Using a Friendly Voice	107
26. Using a Respectful Voice	110
27. Giving Information Nonverbally	113
28. Attending to a Model	116
29. Respecting Another's Boundaries	119
30. Showing Interest in Others	122
31. Understanding Differences	125
32. Taking Another's Perspective	128
Group III: Self-Regulation	131
33. Regulating Your Attention	133
34. Recognizing Anxiety	136
35. Deciding What Causes Your Anxiety	139
36. Dealing with Anxiety	142
37. Checking Your Voice and Interests	145
38. No Means No	148
39. Using Self-Control	151
40. Dealing with Change	154
41. Dealing with Boredom	157
42. Responding to Authority	160
43. Checking Your Behavior	163
44. Affirming Yourself	166
Group IV: Problem Solving	169
45. Determining Private Information	171
46. Understanding Rules of Swearing	174

47. Understanding Rules of Touch	177
48. Planning for Stressful Situations	180
49. Defining a Problem	183
50. Considering Alternatives	186
51. Choosing an Alternative	189
52. When to Change Strategies	192
53. When a Rule Doesn't Work	195
54. Giving Feedback	198
55. Seeking Attention	201
56. Accepting Attention	204
57. Making a Complaint	207
58. When You Don't Understand	210

Group V: Understanding Emotions 213

59. Knowing Your Feelings	215
60. Feeling Different	218
61. Expressing Your Feelings	221
62. Calming Your Feelings	224
63. Showing Affection	227
64. Recognizing Another's Feelings	230
65. Showing Concern for Another	233
66. Understanding Another's Intentions	236
67. Dealing with Another's Anger	239

Group VI: School-Related Skills 243

68. Asking for Help	245
69. Ignoring Distractions	248
70. Contributing to Discussions	251
71. Taking a Break	254
72. Setting a Goal	257
73. Completing Assignments	260
74. Following Adult Directions	263
75. Asking for Information	266
76. Organizing Materials	269
77. Making Corrections	272
78. Preparing for Class	275

79. Dealing with Transitions 278

80. Interrupting 281

Appendix A: Program Forms and Checklists 285

Appendix B: Sample Skillstreaming Sessions 347

References 359

About the Author 365